Here at Don Johnson Sales we value your privacy. We do not harvest email addresses, and we do not sell or give away any of your personal information.

Any form that you fill out is used only to provide you with information you request, and we keep only such information as allows us to communicate with you with respect to any business transaction you may enter into with us.

Information We Collect:

We collect personal financial information about you in order to conduct our business relationship. That information is collected from sources such as:

- information we receive from you on applications or other forms
- information about your transactions with others and us
- information we receive from a consumer-reporting agency

Information Collected from Emails and Web Forms:

We collect three types of information electronically:

- general emails you send us
- general inquiries using our web forms
- credit application using our secure encryption

When you send us personal financial information, for example, using our secure (encrypted) credit application form, we use this information only to fulfill or respond to your requests. We do not create individual profiles with the information you send us, and your personal financial information is not disclosed to anyone except as necessary to fulfill or respond to your requests. Any emails you send us that are general in nature, as well as our responses to such emails, are generally not secure in nature.

Information We Disclose:

We do not disclose any personal information about you to anyone except as permitted by law. We do not share any information of any type unless:

- the information is necessary to complete, administer, process, or enforce a transaction you request or authorize;
- the information is disclosed in connection with the servicing, processing, or maintaining of financial products and services you obtain from us;
- the information is disclosed with your consent or at your direction; or
- the disclosure is required to respond to judicial process, comply with regulatory proceedings and legal process, and to comply with federal, state, or local laws, rules, and other applicable legal requirements.

Our Security Procedures:

We restrict access to your personal and account information to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.

Please feel free to contact us with any questions or concerns regarding this privacy policy or for any other reason. We are always happy to hear from you!
